BIG ARTESIAN WATER FLOW IN NYE COUNTY

ONE WELL IN RAILROAD VALLEY REPORTED FLOWING 43 INCHES DAILY.

Marlin Horton, a pioneer rancher and miner of Railroad valley, spent a few days in the city during the week, says the Ely Record. He came in from his ranch a distance of more than 60 miles with Joe Osborn, who now delivers the mail three times a week from Ely to Currant and Duckwater by auto. The trip was made in four and half hours coming in by way of Preston, which the mail contract requires. He reports the roads in splendid condition, especially in White Pine county. He says the road from Blue Eagle ranch to Twin Springs in Nye county is now being improved, the contract having been let by the board of county commissioners to Owen Cazier. The commissioners are prepared to expend $2000 on this piece of work, which will make it one of the best stretches of road in eastern Nevada. The balance of the road between the White Pine county line and Tonopah is in almost perfect condition. Mr. Horton was especially well pleased with the work which has been done in White Pine county. He has traveled over this road many years and never before realized that such good roads were possible.
